

Opensource Transition Resources

1. Introduction

An open collection of transition-related resources maintained by the Red Hat Pride Community. Contributions welcome!

2. How to Contribute

2.1. Request GitHub Project Access

Send an email to OpenSource Transition Resources Project mailing list (ccs-mod-docs@redhat.com) asking nicely to be given access to OpenSource Transition Resources Project on GitHub. Please give us your GitHub username and use the following subject line: REQUESTING ACCESS.

2.2. Configuring a Local Copy

STEP 1 - Clone the GitHub project locally:

git clone git@github.com:AshtonDavis/open-source-transition-resources.git

STEP 2 - Verify the GitHub project status:

cd open-source-transition-resources
git status

2.3. Contributing Changes

STEP 1 - Create a new branch:

```
git checkout -b <new_branch_name>
```

Example:

```
git checkout -b new_edits

STEP 2 - Add content or make edits.

STEP 3 - Add and commit your changes:

git add <path_to_file>
git commit -m "<place_your_comments_here>"
```

Example:

```
git add master.adoc
git commit -m -s "Updated the master.adoc file"

STEP 4 - Push changes to the remote GitHub repository:

git push origin <new_branch_name>
```

Example:

```
git push origin new_edits

STEP 5 - Create a new pull request from the GitHub web interface.

STEP 6 - Everyone on the project team will review the merge request and add comments in GitHub. This review process will be open for one week from the day the merge request was submitted. If the merge request is still being actively discussed beyond the one week timeframe, then the merge request will stay open. Once the merge request discussion is resolved, the merge request will be NACK'd or ACK'd based on the comments given. If no comments are given after a week, then the merge request will be ACK'd.

3. Crisis Hotlines

One Doc for all hotlines - add section for country

4. UK Public Records

Legal Name/Gender Changes on Public Records (UK)

5. US Public Records

5.1. California

5.1.1. Official State Support

The State of California allows you to change your name and gender, and has a well documented process with a how-to guide: <https://www.courts.ca.gov/genderchange.htm?rdeLocaleAttr=en>

The filing fees are $435, but you may apply for a waiver if you cannot afford this.

5.2. North Carolina

5.2.1. Wake County

Acquire the following documents: <https://www.lgbtcenterofraleigh.com/adult-programs/transgender-initiative/changing-your-name.html>

5.2.2. For Background Checks...

- Go to the Detention Center at 3301 Hammond Road and get 2 fingerprint cards from the CCBI. They cost $10 each, and they require cash. Bring $20. Note: Most instructions say to go to the Sheriff's Department. In Wake County, they no longer do it downtown but instead at the Detention Center.
- Send one of the fingerprint cards to the FBI along with:
- $14 certified check or money order payable to the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation
- Right to Review form, filled out
- Identification. Copies of birth certificate and ID are accepted.
- Go to <https://www.edo.cjis.gov/#/> and fill out the form, then pay the $18 by credit card and send the other fingerprint card to the address they tell you, along with a printout the confirmation email they send. Wait about 3 weeks for both to return. Using the website for the FBI results in both of them returning within a few days of each other.

For out-of-state birth certificates, find the appropriate steps here: <https://transequality.org/documents>

Go to the Wake County Courthouse, 12th floor, and sign in at the desk under “non-hearing”. Get a name change packet, as the appropriate forms are NOT available online. Full, complete, clear instructions are the first page in this packet.

Fill out the Notice of Intent to Change Name form and have the clerk stamp it. Go down to Floor S and post the Notice of Intent to Change Name form on the bulletin board under the appropriate month.

Leave up for 10 full business days, not counting the day posted or the day removed. Pull the Notice of Intent to Change Name form from Floor S and take it, as well as the results of both background checks and the notarized documents from the packet and take them back to floor 12. Sign in again under “non-hearing” and they’ll assist you. When everything’s correct, pay the $120 fee (cash, money order, or certified check) and they’ll provide the court order. This can take a couple hours.

North Carolina has a pesky law (§ 101-6) that only allows one court ordered name change, fortunately there have been a number of appeals made and name changes granted. This link links to a story that highlights both denials, appeals, and the approvals granted.

here. Google appears to have made this process relatively straightforward.

As noted by a contributor: The best approach seems to be creating an email alias, and utilizing that. Your Google sign-in name can't be changed. If you want a fully fresh slate, you can create a new account and forward your old emails, but you cannot transfer purchases.

11.2. Facebook

Load your Facebook profile, and click the down-pointing arrow in the top-right of the page and click Settings. Under General look for Name, click Edit and enter your new name. Click Review Change, enter your password, and click Save Changes.

11.3. LinkedIn

From your profile page, click your name. Click the Edit pen icon at the upper right Change your profile name

11.4. Instagram

Change this in your profile. # Snapchat Display name is editable from Settings Slack Channels: Women In Tech <https://womenintech.slack.com/> LGBTQ in Tech <https://lgbtq.technology/>
